I never spend more than $20 for a hair cut or perm.
Sometimes I’m too worried about my appearance.
I think it is strange when boys spend a lot of time on their looks.
I can’t stand it when someone near me is wearing perfume or cologne.
When I’m thinking of getting a haircut, I often turn to fashion magazines for inspiration.
When a brand is trendy, I feel compelled to buy it so that I can fit in.
I have a tendency of impulsively buying articles of clothing I really want.
If I don’t have enough cash, I have no problem with using credit cards.
If I had the money, I would pay a style consultant to buy all of my clothes for me.
I have a signature style.

Conversation

Michael: Hey Dominic, wanna watch the Yankees game tomorrow afternoon?

Dominic: Oh, tomorrow. Um, I can’t, sorry.

Michael: Are you working on a Saturday? Man, that’s too bad.

Dominic: No, I’m not working. Actually, I’m... I’m going to a day spa.

Michael: A what? What’s that?

Dominic: It’s a full service beauty spa. I get a facial, then a eucalyptus oil massage, and finally soak in a rose pedal jacuzzi. My skin looks great afterwards.

Michael: Dude! You’re hilarious! No really, what are you doing?

Dominic: I’m serious. It’s wonderful! Sometimes we need to pamper ourselves.

Michael: Well, personally, I don’t think men should think so much about their looks. It’s a little strange.

Dominic: Why don’t you come along, they also do waxing: chest, back, or eyebrows.

Michael: Wha...what’s wrong with my eyebrows?

Dominic: Oh, nothing. Nothing at all.

Michael: What time are you going?
